

Edye Disner – First Vice President

Edye Disner is originally from Memphis and has lived in Atlanta for almost 30 years. She is a Florence Melton Mini School graduate and has participated in leadership programs with both Hadassah and The American Jewish Committee. She has served as a board member for the Georgia Association on Young Children, chair of the Jewish Early Childhood Council of Atlanta, and board member of the Early Childhood Educators of Reform Judaism. She has volunteered with the Atlanta Jewish Film Festival for over 10 years including many years on the Film Selection/Evaluation Committee. Edye is a life-long early childhood educator and is the Director at Dunwoody Prep. Here at Temple Emanu-El, Edye sounds the shofar at High Holidays for our children's programs and services, serves on the Membership Committee and the Ritual Committee, and is enjoying her newly expanded Chavurah. Edye and her husband, Rob, were married by Rabbi Spike in November of 2016. She enjoys playing mahjonn, reading, cheering on the Vols during football season, and spending lots of time with her niece and nephew (Diamond Family Religious School Students).

Wendy Frank – Vice President

Wendy has focused her career helping people as a Social Worker. As a wife and mother, she has dedicated herself to providing a Jewish home and educational foundation for her family. Wendy and her husband Nicholas have been members of Temple Emanu El for 12 years and live in Roswell. All three sons, Harrison 12, Avi, 10 and Noah 6, attended Schiff preschool. Harrison and Avi attend The Davis Academy and Noah attends The Howard School. Harrison will become a Bar Mitzvah January 14, 2017.

Wendy earned a Master's Degree in Social work from New York University and has been in private practice (psychotherapy) for 19 years. Her practice specialty areas include; adults undergoing fertility treatment, young adults struggling with "launching" into adulthood, and self-esteem struggles related to depression and anxiety.

Wendy has been a member of the Sisterhood Steering Committee for the past 4 years. She has participated in the Governor's Mansion project since its inception 6 years ago and has been the chair of this committee for the last 3 years. She is excited to continue contributing to the wonderful and forward momentum our synagogue is currently experiencing.

Bill Kellert – Vice President

Bill grew up in Hollywood Florida where he met his wife Elyse. He moved to Atlanta to go to school at Emory and has never left. Out of college, he joined The Temple and was active with the young adults group there. In 1993 Elyse and Bill, along with their two boys Greg and Bryan joined Temple Emanu-El. Both Greg and Bryan had their bar mitzvah and confirmation at Emanu-El.

As a member of Temple Emanu-El, Bill has, among other things, participated in the leadership training program, served as a Jr. TEFTY advisor, gabbai, board member, Brotherhood treasurer, financial secretary, vice-president and treasurer.

Bill has been a CPA for 35 years and has had his own practice for 20 years. Outside of work, Bill enjoys running, horses and as of March 3 – spending time with his first grandchild – Collin Kellert.

Eric Warshal - Treasurer

Eric and his family have been members of Temple Emanu-El for 12 years. He and his wife Stephanie have lived in Atlanta since 1995 and in Dunwoody since 2005. They have a daughter at the University of Georgia and two sons at Dunwoody High School, all of whom attended religious school and had their B'nai Mitzvot at Temple Emanu-El. Eric graduated from University of Florida with a degree in Marketing, and earned an MBA from Emory University. He spent 12 years with Cox Enterprises before starting a hedge fund administration services firm, Fund Associate, more than 10 years ago. He also started a second company, Emjan Services, a merchant credit card processing firm, in 2015. Eric grew up in South Florida, where his father was a Rabbi and Jewish Federation Director and instilled in him the importance of involvement in the Jewish community.

Tracey Baylin - Financial Secretary

Tracey joined the Temple Emanu-El family in 2012 after moving to Atlanta from New Jersey. She is actively involved as Co-Chair for our Membership Committee and as a Sisterhood member. Tracey serves as Treasurer and Communications Chair for The Davis Academy PTO, where she also held the role of President. In addition, she is Vice President of Hospitality for Spartan Nation (Foundation and PTO) at North Springs Charter High School. Tracey's professional background includes positions in accounting and finance with Ernst and Young LLP, Physicians Planning Group/HealthCare Automation, and MedStar Health. She has two teenage sons, Zachary and Samuel.

Stuart Dunowitz - Trustee

Stuart and his wife Ingrid joined Temple Emanu-El in 2015. Their children Alex and Sharla attend The Davis Academy, Camp Barney, and will be celebrating their Bnai-mitzvah in 2020 at Temple Emanu-El. Stuart and his family were on the Temple Emanu-el Israel trip in 2019, and Stuart attended his first AIPAC conference this year. Stuart is co-owner of Southern Medical Linen Service since 2004, providing healthcare facilities throughout Georgia with linen, laundry, scrubs, and lab coats. Stuart grew up in New York, graduated from State University of New York at Albany, and moved to Atlanta in 1996.

Hal Fine – Trustee

Hal has been a member of Temple Emanu-El since 1979 when his family joined. He have been married to Paula Fine for over 31 years. Paula is the Sisterhood President and has served in many positions at the temple. They have a daughter Marissa (26), who is engaged to Oliver Marcus and their wedding is this October 7th. Their son Ari is 20 and a junior at Middle Tennessee State University, majoring in Music Business. His mother Ann Fine, has been an active member and is the temple co- chair for the Caring Committee.

Hal has had many duties and chairs for the temple. He has been co- chair for the FREC committee and co- chair for the membership committee. He has also been president of the Brotherhood from 2010-2017. He loves Temple Emanu-El and it will always be a part of his spiritual home. He looks forward to helping the board to continue to make Temple Emanu-El a welcoming home for individuals and families for their Jewish experience.

Louis Goldberg – Trustee

Louis is Executive Director of Customer Analytics at Cox Communications, responsible for leading consumer data analysis, predictive modeling, and advanced statistical analytics to inform and optimize marketing and customer profitability decisions. Before joining Cox, Louis worked in the Atlanta office of the Boston Consulting Group in the marketing and sales practice. He holds a B.A. in economics from the University of Virginia, and an M.B.A. from Stanford University. Louis grew up in Georgia and has lived in Atlanta with his wife (Angela) and three kids (Ethan, Mason, and Emerson) since 2003. In his spare time, Louis enjoys spending time with his family, playing tennis and basketball, and cooking.

Marvin S. Goldstein - Trustee

Marvin S. Goldstein graduated from State University of New York at Stony Brook with a BS in Physical Science. Marvin Goldstein obtained both his MS and Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from the University of Georgia. As a licensed psychologist for 45 years, Marvin S. Goldstein, Ph.D. has provided evaluation, forensic, and therapeutic services. Using hypnosis, behavior modification, RET, and traditional psychotherapy, he helps individuals, couples, relationships, families, and groups with psychosomatic disorders, anxieties, stresses, and life crises. Marvin teaches self-hypnosis, relaxation, coping skills, and pain management.

As an expert witness, he has participated in divorce, custody, personal injury, criminal, and workers compensation cases.

Presently, Marvin is on the Medical staff at Northside Hospital, The Hospital Ethics Committee, and the National Behavioral Health Committee for Anthem. He had been on Medical Staffs at Parkwood Hospital, Peachford Hospital, Ridgeview Institute, and Psychiatric Institute of Atlanta. He is a three term former president, three term former secretary, and 15 term treasurer of the Georgia Hypnosis Society. He has been a member of the American Psychological Association since 1972 and presently is a Life Member.

Marvin is a charter member of Temple Emanu-El. He has been an active member without interruption for 40 years. As a major donor, he has established the Goldstein Learning Center and yearly sponsors the Atlanta Community Symphony concert.

Lee Paris - Trustee

Originally from South Florida, Lee first moved to Atlanta to attend law school at Emory University School of Law. Since graduating from Emory University School of Law, Lee has continued to expand his involvement and grow his footprint throughout the Jewish community in the Atlanta area. He is a newer member to Temple Emanu-El and has assisted with the planning and organization of events for NextDor - Temple Emanu-El's engagement group for 20's and 30's in the community. In addition to his efforts with NexDor, Lee is a proud member of Temple Emanu-El's softball team.

In his professional life, Lee is an attorney at a mid-sized Buckhead law firm where he focuses his practice on complex domestic relations matters. In his free time, Lee enjoys traveling, cooking, trying new restaurants and attending street festivals. On Saturdays, you can find him rooting on his beloved Texas Longhorns. He is looking forward to the opportunity to serve on the Temple Emanu-El Board of Trustees and continue to contribute to Temple Emanu-El's successes.

Mickey Rosner – Trustee

I have been a member of Temple Emanu-el for the past 20 years. I have 4 children, all who have been bar and bat mitzvahed and subsequently confirmed at TE. Two of our Children Casey and Allie were madrichem in our religious school.

In the past I have served on different committees. I recently help to chair our 40th anniversary celebration. To also commemorate our anniversary I built and created our Tovar's and the Traveling Ark program and helped to create a coloring book for our kids in religious school retelling the story of our beginnings.

I have volunteered in our gift shop every Friday for the past 5 years and on any given Friday you will see me there. I also cochair our Koleinu committee which strives to ensure that all members with disabilities feel included. To that end I have adapted a prayed book so that everyone might feel included in our services.

Professionally I am a speech therapist who works solely with nonverbal and low verbal children to help the acquire and learn to use electronic communication devices. I have worked at children's healthcare of Atlanta for the past 32 years. I also work part time at the center for rare neurological disorders where I evaluate and treat all types of children from all over the world for the purposes of communicating using communication devices. I used to teach the graduate class in alternative and augmentative communication at UGA. That was BT (before twins)!

I am married to Noah Rosner who was at one time on the executive board of TE as well as past president. My roots run deep at TE. My brother, Aaron Silverman and his family as well as my father, Bernie Silverman, and cousins, Nathan and Laurie Slaff are all members.

Beverly Stahl - Trustee

Beverly was born in Washington, DC and grew up in Miami, Florida. She received her B.S. in Nursing at the University of Alabama and a MSN at the University of California. She was always interested in education and focused her nursing career as a member of a teaching faculty and 30 plus years as a childbirth educator. She also taught these classes at Northside Hospital for 10 years.

Mickey and Bev have been married for 48 years. They lived in Miami, Columbia, SC and now in the Atlanta area for 25 years. Her main focus of community activity has been with the Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta. She is retired and is an enthusiastic learner at the Marcus Jewish Community Center Adult Education for 20 years. She plays bridge and mahjong. Both of them are active with AIPAC. She and husband Mickey love to travel. They have a daughter and 2 grandchildren who live in Dunwoody and a son in Israel.

They are members of Temple Emanuel since 2000. She currently co-chairs the Sababa group and serves on the Caring committee and newly formed Chavurah Committee.

Perry Walter - Trustee

Perry grew up in Virginia Beach, VA and moved to Atlanta (with his then fiancé at the time, Deb) from Tampa in 1996. He and my family have been members of Temple Emanu-El since 2003. Perry's wife, Deb, and he have three children, all of whom had their B'nai mitzvahs at the Temple.

Perry served on the Board for four years between 2011 and 2014 and the Executive Board from 2014 to 2017. He has been active in several committees and the religious school over the years. Perry has a long history of working in finance – as a securities analyst, venture capitalist, and business valuation expert. Currently, Perry works for the Capital Group Private Client Services as a Private Wealth Advisor.

Perry also serves on the Board of Directors of the Southern Capital Forum, a forum for venture capitalists and private equity firms to discuss ideas and network. He is also a volunteer diver at the GA Aquarium and has over 2,100 hours of service. With fellow volunteers, Perry participated in Reef Restoration Foundation trips where the team literally rebuilt coral reefs around the world.

Perry is a graduate of the University of Virginia with a degree in Economics and Communications and has an MBA from UNC Chapel Hill. Perry is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA). He loves to travel with his family and is an avid Atlanta Braves and UVA basketball fan.

Julie Weiser - Trustee

Julie is currently employed at The Davis Academy, where she has worked for over twenty years. Julie is serving as the first and second grade teacher in The Davis Learning Center. Previously, she worked with the fourth and fifth graders in The Davis Learning Center. Before joining The Davis Learning Center, she was a kindergarten teacher/grade chair, first grade teacher, second grade teacher, and assistant to the media specialist. While working in The Davis Learning Center, Julie was the recipient The Power of One award through the Greater Atlanta Jewish Abilities Alliance in January 2019.

Julie has been married to David for twenty-five years and has three sons, Jake-23, Noah-21, and Eli-16, all of which attended Schiff Preschool. While her boys attended Schiff Preschool, Julie taught at Schiff. She has also participated in Temple Emanu-El's Leadership class during their previous membership.

Julie and her family returned to Temple Emanu-El in August 2019. Julie returned to Temple Emanu-El to find comfort in Shabbat services; however, Julie has found a home and community for her family. Julie co-chairs the Backpack Buddy Program with her husband, David. She was a recipient of the Shirley Schiffer Volunteerism Award. Their youngest son is on the executive board of TEFTY, a participant in Confirmation Class, and member of NFTY.