Beloved, Come to meet the bride; beloved come to greet Shabbat. "Keep" and "remember": a single command the Only God caused us to hear; the Eternal is One, God's Name is One; glory and praise are God's. Come with me to meet Shabbat, forever a fountain of blessing. Still it flows, as from the start: the last of days, for which the first was made. Awake, awake, your light has come! Arise, shine, awake and sing: the Eternal's glory dawns upon you. Enter in peace, O crown of your husband; enter in gladness, enter in joy. Come to the people that keeps its faith. Enter, O bride! Enter, O bride!

Love Adonai your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might. These words which I command you today shall be on your heart. Teach them repeatedly to your children, speaking of them when you sit at home and when you travel on the way, when you lie down and when you rise. Bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be a sign between your eyes. Write them on the doorposts of your house and gates.

Thus you will be reminded to keep all My commandments, and be holy to your God. I am Adonai your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. I am Adonai your God.

[Moments for Silent Prayer and Reflection]You Are the One: Reb Nachman's Prayer

(Debbie Friedman)

You are the One, for this I pray, that I may have the strength to be alone. To see the world, to stand among the trees, and all the living things. That I may stand alone and offer prayers and talk to You; You are the One to whom I do belong. And I'll sing my soul, I'll sing my soul to You and give You all that's in my heart.

May all the foliage of the fields, all grasses, trees and plants, awaken at my coming, this I pray, and send their life into my words of prayer. So that my speech, my thoughts and my prayers will be made whole, and through the spirit of all growing things. And we know that everything is one because we know that everything is You.

You are the One, for this I pray, I ask You, God to hear my words that pour out from my heart; I stand before You; I, like water, lift my hands to you in prayer.

And grant me strength; and grant me strength to stand alone. You are the One to whom I do belong. And I'll sing my soul, I'll sing my soul to You and give you all that's in my heart. You are the One, for this I pray, and I'll sing my soul to You.
